HERRINGTON & CARMICHAEL APPOINT 3 NEW MEMBERS

Camberley 2nd October 2006 – Herrington & Carmichael LLP are pleased to announce the appointment of three new members: Andrew Annette, Yavan Brar & Tim Hardesty. All three have been with the firm for a number of years and come from varied backgrounds:

Andrew Annette

Andrew studied law at the College of Law in Guildford and qualified as a solicitor in 1999. Andrew is joint head of the Commercial property department and specialises in residential development work and acts for a number of prominent regional house builders. He is an expert in land purchases by way of conditional contracts and options. Andrew is also an FA qualified football coach and you will find him at the weekends either coaching under-7s or on the terrace at Woking Town FC offering free advice to the players!

Yavan Brar

Yavan gained a degree at Surrey University and then studied law at the College of Law, Guildford; he qualified in 1999. Yavan heads up the Corporate Department and deals with all aspects of corporate sales, acquisitions and restructuring. He has expertise in intellectual property and advises on branding, copyright and trademark issues. Yavan is keen on both tennis and golf but rarely score less than 100! However in travel terms he would like to list 100 countries he has visited; to date his score is 46.

Tim Hardesty

Educated in Windsor and Oxford, Tim attended University College, London and the College of Law, Guildford. Tim is joint head of the Commercial Property department and has experience in residential development acting for both developers and landowners. He is a specialist in site acquisitions, section agreements, affordable housing agreements and the setting up of developments. Outside of work Tim has a keen interest in art and architecture and is on the committee of Chertsey Museum.

Adrian Job, Chairman of Herrington & Carmichael LLP said, “Having Andrew, Yavan and Tim as members reinforces our commitment in having the best people to deliver quality services to our clients and all three are undoubtedly experts in their fields”
