LOCAL SOLICITOR BECOMES PRESIDENT OF LAW SOCIETY IN SURREY

Camberley 8th January 2007 – Andrea Boulter, a senior solicitor with Herrington & Carmichael, will become President of the Law Society in Surrey in 2007; a post which she will hold for a year. The Law Society represents all law firms within Surrey and has over 12,000 members within the area (www.surreylawsociety.org.uk).

Amongst the President's duties are to meet with Members of Parliament and discuss legal issues of the moment, most recently advising on the Carter Review.

The society meets regularly and runs events raising money for local charities; this year Andrea has nominated The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC) as the President's charity (www.nspcc.org.uk).
