LOCAL SOLICITOR SPEAKS AT NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Camberley 30th January 2007 – Frankie Tierney Solicitor and Chief Executive at Herrington & Carmichael LLP was recently invited to speak at the British Safety Council’s highly acclaimed “Health & Safety Best Practice Exchange” held at the CBI Conference Centre in London.

The event attracted over 150 delegates from around the country and was chaired by David Ballard Chief Executive British Safety Council; the keynote speaker was Stephen Taylor, Principal Specialist Inspector at the Health & Safety Executive.

The format of the event is designed to enable the effective sharing of best practice; a forum to foster professional networks and develop actionable ideas about how to improve health & safety in the workplace.

Frankie’s presentation was entitled "Are you ready for the smoking ban?" and related to the introduction on 1st July 2007 of a total smoking ban in all enclosed and substantially enclosed workplaces and public places in England and Wales.
