

Elderly Clients' Affairs

With people living longer and the continuing decline of the extended family, our expert team are increasingly providing independent advice to elderly clients on a range of issues.

Legal and Practical Advice

Many elderly people need support and help across a range of issues. Whilst we try to limit our help to legal matters, it is not uncommon for our team to offer assistance with practical matters where nobody else can help.

Solicitors for the Elderly

Many members of our team are members of Solicitors for the Elderly. Their knowledge and experience bring many benefits to our clients as we help them in managing an older person's affairs be they a neighbour, a distant relative or friend.

Whatever the situation our clients are assured that our team is providing quality advice with the elderly person's best interests always at its heart.

Services include:

- › Will drafting
- › Estate administration
- › UK inheritance tax planning
- › Lasting Powers of Attorney
- › Elderly clients' affairs
- › Living wills
- › Trusts
- › Disabled or mentally ill clients' affairs
