

Family

Our dedicated team are on hand to help with all aspects of a relationship breakdown. Our aim is to be professional whilst, at the same time, helping to minimise your stress.

Separation and Divorce

When a relationship has broken down, we will give clear practical advice to help you plan for the future as quickly and economically as possible. And whilst some court proceedings are inevitable, we can help you in a number of ways.

Mediation

Mediation enables you and your partner to resolve any differences amicably without the expense and stress of a Court battle. During mediation and guided by a specialist mediator each party has an equal opportunity to voice their opinions in a non-confrontational atmosphere, helping you both to reach a suitable settlement.

Collaboration

This alternative means of resolving any issues is a 4-way meeting between you, your partner and your legal advisors where the aim is to achieve an agreement across the table.

The Court Process

If neither mediation nor collaboration is appropriate we can support you through the traditional court process, which will involve formal procedures to resolve all issues. However, we will work with you to try to reach an agreement with your partner by negotiation wherever possible.

Children Issues

In any breakdown where children are involved, their needs are a high priority. We advise on all aspects of providing for the children as well as trying to ensure that they retain a good relationship with both parents wherever possible.

Free Initial Consultation

We are happy to offer a free initial 30-minute consultation for all new clients on family issues. Please contact your local office for more details.
