

WOKINGHAM'S BRAINIEST BUSINESS QUIZ NIGHT £500 RAISED FOR THE MAY FAYRE CHARITY

Camberley 25th May 2007 – The second annual Wokingham's Brainiest Business quiz took place at the Town Hall on the 24th May, hosted by local solicitors Herrington & Carmichael LLP. The event was a great success and raised just over £500 for the Lions' May Fayre charity: Dingley Dell Nursery.

The quiz attracted 12 teams from local businesses who fought out a tight contest with Vantis (independent financial advisors) the 2006 winners just losing out to a team from HSBC Bank's commercial department.

The teams were entered by a variety of local firms including: Point-to-Point, Hexagon Consulting, Richard Worth, Total Logistics and Michael Hardy. The buffet supper from The Sultan Balti restaurant also proved very popular!

Commenting on the evening Andrew Slay, Chairman of the Wokingham Lion who was on hand to award the trophy said, “We are very grateful to the generosity of all those involved in the evening which was not only great fun but raised money for a worthy cause. I look forward to next year's contest.”

Tony Burgess, the winning captain declared, “We have thoroughly enjoyed this evening and shall be back next year to defend our title.”

James Eatwell, solicitor and partner at Herrington & Carmichael said “We are very pleased at not just the turnout of local firms and their generosity, but also the friendly but competitive atmosphere they created on the night.”
