

TITCHENERS ARE CROWNED 'WOKINGHAM'S BRAINIEST BUSINESS'

Wokingham 2nd June – Herrington & Carmichael has teamed up with other Wokingham businesses to raise vital funds for Carwarden House Community School and the Lions charities.

The very popular annual Herrington & Carmichael Quiz Night held at Wokingham Town Hall on Thursday 22 May drew teams from across the borough, keen to offer their support... and of course to take away the much coveted Quiz Night Shield!

£500 was raised from the competing teams battling it out for the title, 'Wokingham's Brainiest Business'. Ashley Holden, Partner at Herrington & Carmichael, and one of the organisers of the Quiz Night felt everyone got into the party spirit:

“We’ve had some great support from business colleagues. They appreciate the importance of raising funds for two very worthwhile causes - Carwarden House, who do some fantastic work with children with special needs, and the Lions who support many local charities.”
says Ashley

“I would like to congratulate not only tonight’s winners but everyone who has made a very special effort in attending the Quiz Night. The Quiz Nights are of course great fun; a social occasion to meet up with local business colleagues outside work and the office. We’re pleased that this year’s Quiz has been such a success.”

The Quiz Night attracted 11 teams of the brainiest business people Wokingham has to offer. The NUTS aka Titcheners Accountants walked away with the Shield, though only after winning a tie breaker from Worthies Originals (Richard Worth Estate Agents). Tony’s Tigers (HSBC) came in a respectable third place. Jim Eatwell, of Herrington & Carmichael, presented the Shield and prizes.

Ashley is grateful to colleagues Jim Eatwell Yavan Brar and Sandra Anderson, in helping organise the Quiz Night.

Carwarden House Community School near Camberley is one of the UK's top schools for students aged 11-16 with special educational needs. Students who are admitted to Carwarden will have learning difficulties and associated language and/or communication problems. Students often experience problems due to failure in a mainstream setting, both academically and socially, and will normally enter Carwarden with low self esteem or a lack of confidence. The school's aim is to equip its students with the educational and practical skills needed to progress and succeed in adult life. For further information please visit www.carwardenhouse.com
